STATEMENT OF PURPOSE

Compose and type a well-written paragraph in response to each question. Edit your responses with care so that you present yourself effectively to the selection committee.

Describe your academic, career, and personal goals, and how your participation in this program will help you achieve those goals.

What experience and skills do you have relating to youth media, border issues, immigration, farmworker rights, civil rights and social justice activism?

How would you share your local experience with youth and community to our colleagues in Las Cruces, New Mexico?

How do you plan to implement lessons learned from the Corps Without Borders Summer Experience to your own community?
